

It's never too early to start thinking about life after graduation!

WHEN A DEGREE IS NOT ENOUGH:

STRATEGIES FOR MAXIMIZING YOUR RESUME AND NEGOTIATING STARTING SALARIES BY BROOKS MENDELL

February 5th, 2008 • 5:30 pm • Mosher Alumni House

The CAPS program will welcome Brooks Mendell to the Mosher Alumni House on February 5, 2008 at 5:30pm in the Alumni Hall. Mendell will present on the topic “A Degree is Not Enough: Strategies for Maximizing Your Resume and Negotiating Starting Salaries” for interested undergraduate and graduate students applying for jobs and entering the workforce. This dynamic session teaches skills for developing targeted resumes and introduces strategies for negotiating starting salaries. Pizza will be served.

Dr. Brooks Mendell is an author, teacher, consultant, and award-winning speaker. Mendell speaks professionally on topics related to leadership, communication skills, and forestry.

The Campus Alumni Program for Students (CAPS) is the student-led branch of the UCSB Alumni Association and is committed to preparing students for life after graduation as well as connecting alumni and students.

To RSVP — please call Lauren Linn at (805) 893-4775 or email Lauren.linn@ia.ucsb.edu.

